

“The Church of Tomorrow as You See It Today”

Youth Essay Writing Event

Be a prophet to the Eastern North Carolina Association by writing 500 word essay describing the directions you believe the church should take. Tell us what sort of church you want to be a part of and what sort of priorities you believe the church should embrace.

Essays should be submitted to the Association Office by August 15, 2008.
Selected essays will be read at the Annual Meeting on October 11, 2008.

They can be mailed to:

252B West Fifth St. Burlington, NC 27215 c/o Phil Hardy

Or emailed to philhardyenca@soc-ucc.org

Self Expression Gallery

If essay writing is not your thing we want to hear the voices of our youth in other ways. Turn in your drawings, paintings, poems, songs, etc which are your way of describing the church as you envision it.

These also need to be submitted by August 15 and will all be displayed at the Annual Meeting.
